Chapter 1 by Nayder

Zev had just become a man in his village. After 20 long years of waiting he had finally began to follow in his father's footsteps, sadly what awaited ahead wasn't what he had expected. No, the events that Zev would see in his time with the Royal Erthian Forces would forever change the way he looked at things. If I am not mistaken it all began with the entrance trials, an exam so ruthless that the last batch of failures were sent home with multiple broken bones. But what could you do? Erthia was a big kingdom so of course they would need tough soldiers to represent their army, and this year they had quite a few though participants.
